

A 70 year old lady has fallen and has sustained a distal radius fracture. The fracture does not need reduction. She has a haematoma block in situ. Apply a suitable back slab.

	Not done	Partially done	Completed
Washed hands, alcohol gel, gloves
Suitable room
Introduced self
Check patient identity
Obtains verbal consent & outline procedure
Checks correct side
Checks X-ray
Ensures adequate analgesia before starts
Applies Stockinette
Applies Orthopaedic Wool
Measures Plaster
Suitable thickness & width
Cuts to shape
Uses water
Applies plaster
Bandages on cast
Places in a sling
Requests check X-ray
Rechecks analgesia
Any Questions?
Thanks patient

Patient mark (out of 5)
-------------------------	--

Examiner's Mark (out of 42)
-----------------------------	--

Overall (out of 47)
---------------------	--