To whom it may concern

At about 02:00 hours on Sunday 25 October 2009 an elderly lady called Edna ASHBURY was brought into the A&E Department for treatment of an injury on her left leg. Your log reference 0961243 refers.

The circumstances under which this injury was sustained are now the subject of a Police investigation.

Miss Ashbury suffers from dementia and so is unable to understand the normal protocol in respect of disclosure of medical information about herself. I therefore give my authority for disclosure of information about this injury.

I should be grateful if information about this patient's injuries and treatment could be given to Police Constable 3472 ROBERTS who will deliver the signed original of this letter of authority.

Martin Graham
Police Inspector.
